FROM: Imperial Grievance and Appeals Committee (G&AC)

SUBJECT: Common Mistakes in Filing Grievances and Appeals with the G&AC

Fraternal Greetings Nobles:

This notification has the Grievance and Appeal form attached that is used to file a grievance or appeal that you were unable to resolve on a local level. However, there are exceptions to filing with the G&AC as outlined below:

1. Nobles filing charges against another Noble – it's a Temple filing;
2. Nobles filing a complaint against an Appointed or Elected Imperial Officer for their performance of duties – it's an Imperial Potentate filing through the Imperial Recorder;
3. Nobles including detailed official actions that have been rendered by the Imperial Recorder, have been ratified by the Imperial Council – it's an Imperial Council filing;
4. Nobles removed from office by the Imperial Potentate – it's a filing for the Imperial Divan through the Imperial Recorder.

Nobles, this notice is for the purpose of informing you how to obtain more efficient service, and resolving your issue promptly.

Fraternally and sincerely,

George Blue
